SUBJECT: CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE(1)
SERGIO ARCACHA, W/M.
CUBAN REFUGEE

Sir:

The following information regarding SUBJECT, a principal witness in NEW ORLEANS DISTRICT ATTORNEY JIM GARRISON'S CONSPIRACY CASE, is submitted for your information.

The indices of the Records Bureau of the Dallas Police Department disclosed that on February 3, 1967 the Arrest Records were searched for an investigator of the office of the District Attorney of New Orleans. The investigator signed his name as W. GURVICH. The names checked were:

Sergio Arcacha Smith, w/m/45
Sergio Arcacha, w/m/45
Caridad Lopez, w/f/dob 3/17/20
David William Ferrie, w/m/45
Emilio Santana, w/m
Campo, w/m (no first name given)

Clerk Alice Linker searched for the first five names after Patrolman Jerry North approved of the identification in the name of William A. Gurvich as an investigator for the Office of the District Attorney of New Orleans. All the arrest records check cards disclosed that these subject were being checked for narcotics violations.

Clerk Sharon Summers was approached by William Gurvich and presented an arrest record check card, stating that he would like to check all the people in the files with the last name of Campo. GURVICH stated that he would likely know the right Campo if he had ever been arrested by this department. Due to Miss Summers kindness GURVICH presented her with 1967 MARDI GRAS car pass to use in the event she came to New Orleans for this event.

The indices of the names checked in the Identification Bureau were searched for February 2, 3, 4 and 5, 1967 to determine if this investigator made an inquiry with negative results.

Respectfully submitted,
